This document serves as a formal application for the Pillars Scholarship. In order to apply for the scholarship, you must be an accepted Dominican University freshman student for Fall 2022 and meet the minimum criteria:

- Ethnicity: Black/African American
- Minimum 3.25/4.0 cumulative weighted GPA
- contemplation, service, the creation of community, and the cultivation of one's relationship to learning.

Please submit the following documentation no later than April 15, 2022:

- The Pillars Scholarship Application
- One letter of recommendation
- A 200-300-word essay following this prompt:
- The Pillars Scholarship is designed for African American students who are interested in becoming urban leaders committed to social justice. This leadership is accomplished through contemplation, service, the creation of community, and the cultivation of one's relationship to learning. The path of social justice requires a commitment to truth seeking, sparked by a curiosity. In 300 words or less, please respond to the following prompt:
What do you believe is your role in the creation of a more just and humane world? In this role, how do you or will you address a particular social justice issue? Why are you especially curious about and committed to this issue?
